INFORMATION TO PARTICIPANTS

Bangalore Amateur Radio Club (BARC) announces the 21st Edition of Bangalore ARDF or Bangalore VHF Day Foxhunt to be held on 26th December 2021

Keeping with the changing times and the worsening traffic conditions, it is proposed to have the following modifications done in the overall plan of event.

1. The normal tradition of all hunting teams assembling at the center of the city for flag off has been modified. Instead, all hunters will assemble at a pre-determined in the general direction of the fox location for the flag off and start the hunt.
2. The Flag off and the Prize distribution venue is one and the same.
3. The assembly time will be 8.30 AM and hunting teams will be issued Competition cards which is mandatory for submission at the foxhole to be eligible to claim the prizes.
4. All Hunting teams will be Flagged off at 09.30 AM and can proceed to take up vantage points for tracking the signal.
5. The Fox will be located within an Aerial distance of 20 KM from the Prize Distribution venue.
6. Fox Transmission shall start at 10 AM and the duration of the hunt will be two hours.
7. Transmission shall be at every fifth minute and will contain continuous Morse Tone. 30 seconds on high power and 30 seconds on low power.
8. The signal shall be vertically polarized and Fox Frequency will be on 145.000 MHz.
9. Any QRM on this frequency, the Fox Transmission will be shifted to back-up frequency which will be announced during the course of the hunt.
10. All hunting teams will return to the Prize Distribution Venue after the first three teams reach the fox hole location.
11. Last date for registration is 24th December 2021.
12. Registration Fee Rs 300/ Participant
